Subject: RE: Armfield v. BellSouth, 2009-255-C

Mr. Armfield:

I am responding to your voice mails of late last week and yesterday.

AT&T South Carolina is willing to participate in good faith discussions to determine if this matter can be resolved amicably, with either the Office of Regulatory Staff or with Mr. Dong, in his capacity as Hearing Examiner, facilitating and mediating those discussions. If your company is interested in this approach, please use "reply all" to let all parties know, and we will work with you to find a time for such discussions that is convenient for all parties and to discuss and propose an appropriate modification of the testimony due dates in this docket.

If your company is unwilling to participate in such discussions, we reserve the right to seek all appropriate relief from the Commission, including without limitation dismissal of this docket for the reasons set forth in our pending motion and for failure to pre-file testimony in accordance with the schedule issued in this docket.

Our willingness to voluntarily participate in such mediated settlement discussions is not, and should not be viewed as, a waiver of any position we have or will take in this docket. Specifically, we continue to believe that your company must engage an attorney in order to pursue its claims at the Commission and, even if that happens, we maintain that the Commission has no jurisdiction to entertain your company's complaint.

We also are confident that our position on the substantive merits of your claim is strong. While we are willing to discuss reasonable settlement possibilities, please understand that we are unwilling to accept the resolution your company has sought during prior settlement discussions with AT&T representatives.

Dear Mr. Armfield:

I understand from our telephone communication today that you had prepared and mailed your prefile testimony in this matter some time ago.
As I indicated by phone, we have not received it.

Please re-send your testimony to us. If it is convenient, you may send it by fax. Please be sure to serve Counsel for AT&T and Counsel for ORS at the same time and by the same method. You can find their contact info here:
